and inclusion across our organization a priority. This work is guided by ACT One, an institutional commitment to making our theatre a home for all families, directed by three words of action: Access, Connect, Transform. Recognizing that socioeconomic status is only one of many barriers, CTC also partners with organizations serving under-resourced communities (many of which also utilize the ACT Pass) to co-host 'welcome' events at the theatre. For example, this year we welcome members of the Latino Community to a free Latino Family Night, an event planned by CTC's Consejo Latino (Latino Council). A major goal of ACT
One is to deepen relationships with key community organizations serving groups that have traditionally been underserved by theatre as a field, both by inviting community members into our space and by increasing CTC's presence in the community.

Employer identification number

The Executive Committee is empowered and authorized to act upon such matters as require action prior to the next regularly scheduled Board of Directors meeting and any such actions of the Executive Committee shall have the same force and effect as an action of the Board of Directors, with the exception that the Executive Committee shall not have the power to make or amend the Bylaws of the corporation, elect members to the Board of Directors, or to fill vacancies on the Executive Committee. If the Executive Committee exercises any of the general powers or duties of the Board of Directors, such action shall be presented to the Board of Directors at the next meeting for ratification by the full Board of Directors. The executive committee consists of all officers of the corporation who are also directors, the chairs of each committee, and any at-large directors the Board of Directors shall appoint from time to time.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 4:

The Governance Committee completed a large re-write of the Bylaws during FY17. Significant changes include:

1. Quorum. The number of directors required for a quorum was increased from one third to one half. The Board will not be allowed to take action unless at least half of its members are present.

2. Removal. The new Bylaws allow the Board to remove a director without cause by a simple majority vote.

3. Committee. The new Bylaws permit the creation of any number of standing committees, but contemplate the existence at all times of an Executive Committee, a Governance Committee, and a Finance Committee. Each is required to meet at least four times each year. The Managing Director and Artistic Director will be ex officio members of each of these committees, but will not have voting rights.

4. Committee Chairs. The new Bylaws make clear that the chairs of each committee are to be appointed by the Board Chair.

5. Indemnification. Former bylaws did not address indemnification rights. A comprehensive provision that provides each Board member with broad indemnification to the extent they are made party to an action (or threatened action) by virtue of their work as a director was added.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b:

The Form 990 is reviewed by the Board Chair and Treasurer. It is presented at a Finance Committee meeting and approved. It is also electronically sent to the entire Board of Governors before it being filed.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

New employees receive the conflict of interest policy in their employee handbook. They are required to complete a form that acknowledges that they have read the policies and understand them. The size of the organization also lends itself to quick recognition of situations where a conflict of interest may arise. Each board member completes an annual related party questionnaire as part of the audit process and discloses any conflicts of interest they may have.

In the exercise of any voting rights, whether as a member of the Board of Governors, an officer, or in any other capacity relating to this corporation, no individual shall vote on any issue, motion, resolution or any other item whatsoever which directly or indirectly inures to the benefit of such individual ("Interested Party"); provided, however, that except as otherwise determined from time to time by a majority of the members of the Board of Governors, not including the Interested Party, the Interested Party may participate in a discussion of such issue, motion, resolution, or item at any meeting of the members of the Board of Governors or any committee thereof, if the Interested Party first makes a full and adequate disclosure of all material facts concerning the nature of the Interested Party's interest to the meeting at which the discussion is occurring and to the Chair of the Board of Governors, the Artistic Director and the Managing Director.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15:

The board of governors issues the contracts for the Artistic Director and the Managing Director. The compensation packages are approved by the Executive Committee of the Board. The salary survey issued by Theatre Communication Group is used for determining compensation levels. The committee also looks at the compensation reported on the Form 990's of similarly sized Organizations. The Managing Director's contract was reviewed 1/16/16 and the Artistic Director's contract was reviewed 11/29/16.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19:

The organization makes its governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements available to the public upon request. In addition, the annual report is available on the organization's website.
