Children's Theatre Company Announces Complete Cast and Creative Team for The First of Two World Premiere Musicals in the 2026-2027 Season

Twelve Kinds of Ice*
Book, Music, and Lyrics by Ben Steinfeld
Directed by Rick Dildine

October 13-November 22, 2026

Minneapolis—August 17, 2026 — Children's Theatre Company (CTC) is pleased to announce the complete cast and creative team for the world premiere musical Twelve Kinds of Ice, based on the book by Ellen Bryan Obed. Featuring a book, music, and lyrics by Ben Steinfeld, Twelve Kinds of Ice will be directed by CTC Artistic Director Rick Dildine†. Twelve Kinds of Ice will run from October 13-November 22, 2026, on the Cargill Stage. Opening night is Friday, October 16, 2026, at 7pm. Justin D. Cook will serve as music director.

"Twelve Kinds of Ice trusts young audiences with emotional depth in a way that feels both rare and necessary," said director Rick Dildine. "It's a story about grief, friendship, and the quiet ways we find our way back to one another. At CTC, we believe young people deserve work that meets them with honesty and artistry, and this piece is a powerful example of how intimate, human storytelling can resonate on a national stage."

"I couldn't be more thrilled that Twelve Kinds of Ice will have its premier at CTC," said writer Ben Steinfeld. "It is the perfect theater for this show, and I'm so grateful that my old friend, Rick Dildine, will be at the helm. I can't wait for audiences to experience the gentle journey and musical magic of this story."

Glide through the ever-shifting magic of winter as Ellen recalls childhood memories of icy adventures with her loving father. In this world premiere musical, cold temperatures and warm hearts unite to tell a tender story that takes us from spotting the first glaze of ice to building an ice rink and hosting skating shows, hockey games, and moonlit solos. Watch in awe as ice freezes before your very eyes, then melts your heart.

Twelve Kinds of Ice is a world premiere musical, the first of two in CTC's upcoming 2026-2027 season. It will be followed by Princess Kay of the Milky Way (February 23-April 4, 2027). Over 200 new plays and musicals have been developed at CTC, including A Year with Frog and Toad, which premiered at CTC before transferring to Broadway and receiving 3 Tony Award nominations. Following its world premiere engagement in Minneapolis, Twelve Kinds of Ice will play at Seattle Children's Theatre (January 28-February 14, 2027). New works such as Twelve Kinds of Ice are crafted from the ground up through a rigorous process of readings, workshops, revisions, and - finally - a full production onstage at CTC.

CTC's world premiere production of Twelve Kinds of Ice features multiple artists making their CTC debut, including Ben Steinfeld (book, music, and lyrics), and Katherine Fried* (Ellen/Young Ellen). Melanie Chen Cole^ (sound designer) returns to CTC and has recently joined CTC's new Core Company.

CTC is at the forefront of the development of new works such as Twelve Kinds of Ice. Over 90 original CTC plays are currently available for licensing through Plays for New Audiences (PNA), the script licensing division for Children's Theatre Company.

CTC's commitment to expanding the canon of plays and musicals for young people contributes greatly to its standing as North America's flagship theatre for multigenerational audiences, and as one of the largest and most prestigious arts organizations in the United States.

CTC's production of Twelve Kinds of Ice is recommended for ages 10 and up. Tickets may be purchased at childrenstheatre.org/twelve or by calling the Ticket Office at 612.874.0400. Ticket prices start at $25.

The cast of Twelve Kinds of Ice includes Katherine Fried as Ellen/Young Ellen and John-Michael Zuerlein as Dad.

The understudies for Twelve Kinds of Ice are Anna Schloerb (Ellen/Young Ellen) and Neal Beckman (Dad).

In addition to Mr. Steinfeld, Mr. Dildine†, and Mr. Cook, the creative team and production staff for Twelve Kinds of Ice includes Michael McGarty (scenic designer), Sarah Bahr^ (costume designer), Marcus Dilliard^ (lighting designer), Melanie Chen Cole^ (sound designer, member of CTC Core Company), Ellie Simonett (assistant lighting designer), Lori Lundquist* (stage manager), Meghan Gaffney* (assistant stage manager/stage manager), Katie Phillips (assistant scenic designer), Austin Schoenfelder* (assistant stage manager), and Jada B. Smith (stage management fellow).

Member of Actors' Equity Association, the union of professional actors and stage managers.*

†Member of SDC, the Stage Directors and Choreographers Society, a national theatrical labor union.

^Member of the United Scenic Artists, Local 829.

Children's Theatre Company (CTC) activates the creative lives of children and families—strengthening imagination, connection, and belonging to help young people thrive and communities grow stronger. Participating in year-round programming, theatre attendees and arts learners represent diverse racial, cultural, socioeconomic, neurocognitive, and geographic backgrounds. CTC is the only theatre focused on young audiences to win the Special Tony Award for Outstanding Regional Theatre and is the only theatre in Minnesota to receive three Tony nominations (for its production of A Year With Frog and Toad). CTC is committed to creating world-class productions at the highest level and to developing new works, more than 200 to date, dramatically changing the canon of work for young audiences.

For 200,000 people annually, CTC aims to be a destination where families create lasting memories and grow together through the power of story and play. We seek to build emotional connections and position CTC as essential to family life and childhood development. Every year, thousands of children experience theatre for the first time at CTC. Our innovative education programs demonstrably benefit the community, from the resilience-based Creative Play program for early learners to the pre-professional skill-building in our Theatre Arts Training. ACT One is CTC's comprehensive platform for access, diversity, and inclusion in our audiences, programs, staff, and board that strives to ensure the theatre is a home for all people, all families, reflective of our community. childrenstheatre.org
